Hey! What is going on?

OMG!! I know they were shocked!

Someone, AW, should've recorded it on her phone!

Oh yeah that would be tough...who else on the team was in the room? Have they named a replacement for Amy J?

The sad thing is, he may win his next race because he will talk about how he helped teachers!

Exactly!

Hey! Thanks! Daniel & I had a great time at the museum. Bruce is on his way to the doctor as we speak. Fingers crossed!! Yes, I'll call you this afternoon on my drive home- let the house cleaning begin!

1/5/20

We should have kept the room at Mad Boar

Well, just got off another main on call with AW. 1 hour 45 minutes all about RFP what a mess!

MJ came into their voting meeting today to basically (without coming directly out and speaking) tell them how to vote! However the vote did not go his way so it will be interesting to see how he gets his way on this.

Yep, she said they walked out of the building and several people said what just happened?

She thought about it but her phone was lying on the table in front of everyone

RE: She and RB and Cindy DeWay and Lynne Lesser and Kristy Dav and Susan Larry voted for children. Pam, Chloee and one of Mark's staff voted for helping teachers. She said she talked about helping teachers and never once mentioned children and saving the teachers' time

Well that's why he is pushing this. Children can't VOTE so we appear lazy as teachers

Hey! Hope your visit to the museum was fun and hope Bruce got good news at his doctor's visit. If you are traveling back today, give me a call while you're driving
