

Testing

- Recommendation
 - If students are remote, the tests (BOG3, EOC, or EOG) are administered when the students return to school or
 - As a local decision, public school units may arrange for students to take the tests at a school sanctioned site that meets the Department of Health and Human Services requirements

